

EVENT INVITATION

BDO Invites You to Our Open House

The partners of BDO Tampa cordially invite you to attend a reception celebrating our new office space. The larger office layout will support our continued growth and expanding footprint in the Tampa business community.

Join us for an evening of celebratory refreshments, hors d'oeuvres and networking with professionals from Tampa's premier businesses.

Our success is a result of the relationships we have with you, our clients and our friends. We would like to celebrate this special occasion and thank you in person for your support of our growth.
